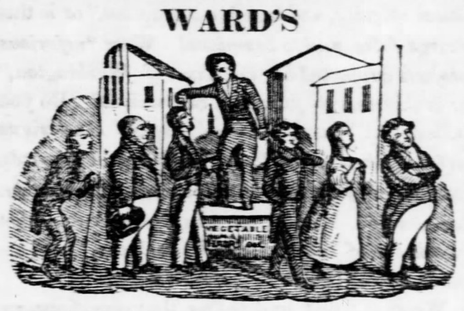
WARD'S



VEGETABLE HAIR OIL.

IN all ages of the world, a beautiful head of hair has been considered the greatest ornament ever bestowed by nature upon the human frame, and indispensably necessary to the perfection of personal beauty. It is a very general complaint of young persons, that their hair is falling off, becoming dry, or unhealthy; this may be owing to the application of improper and injurious oils, or to the entire neglect of the hair. Without proper attention, diseases of the hair will arise, which are often found to occasion thinness, falling off, and frequently total baldness. For these evils, and the necessary inconveniences attending them, Ward's Vegetable Hair Oil will be found in all cases a sure remedy. Before offering this Oil to the public it had been tried in hundreds of cases of baldness, thinness and falling off of the hair, and in every instance its salutary effects have been realized to admiration. It has never failed to produce a new and beautiful growth of hair on heads already bald, and to check that falling off which so often occurs. In cases where it becomes dry and ceases to grow, this Oil will very soon render it healthy, and produce a rapid and beautiful growth, without the least injury to the most delicate head; nor does any falling off follow after using it. That loss of hair, which so often takes place after sickness, may be easily prevented by using this celebrated Oil. In short no Oil has ever been offered to the public that gives such universal satisfaction, and stands the test of experience like Ward's Vegetable Hair Oil.

That the public may rest assured of the salutary effects of this Oil, the following testimonials, from gentlemen of high respectability, are most respectfully submitted:—

Extract of a letter from John A. Wadsworth, M. D., of the city of Providence, R. I. to W. & L. Krumbhaar & Co., of Philadelphia.

Gentlemen: Dr. Ward's Vegetable Hair Oil has gained great repute with us, having restored Hair on heads that have been bald for years, and I have no doubt it will give satisfaction wherever it may be introduced.

Very respectfully,
JOHN A. WADSWORTH.

Messrs. STANLEY & Co., of Baltimore, in writing to Mr. HUNTON, Druggist, in Washington City, say, 'That Letters to them from Druggists in Boston, describe Ward's Hair Oil as being highly approved of there, and selling with astonishing rapidity.

Extract of a letter from Harvey Seymour, Druggist, Hartford, Ct., to the Proprietor, dated Hartford, Sept. 14, 1832.

Dear Sir: I find your Hair Oil a valuable article; I was so unfortunate as to lose the Hair from the top of my head, and, from the use of about half a bottle, I find it starting out anew.

HARVEY SEYMOUR.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27, 1832.

DR. WARD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Oil, you were good enough to put into my hands when I was in Lowell, has produced the most wonderful effects on my Hair that I ever witnessed. You recollect when I called on you, my Hair had fallen very much, and I was quite bald; I have now a beautiful head of Hair, coming on very rapidly. I hardly know how to express my gratitude to you for the benefit the Oil has afforded me. A number of my friends are very anxious to obtain some of the Oil, and I wish you to send me one dozen bottles of the largest size immediately.

Yours, respectfully,
C. WOOD, M. D.

Extract of a letter from Dr. John A. Wadsworth, of Providence, to the Proprietor.

Esteemed Friend: Your Hair Oil is attended with very promising effects. One of our most respectable citizens, who had been bald for ten years, with a skin as smooth and free from hair as the palm of his hand, has been using the Oil, and fine hair is now coming out on every part of the previously bald scalp.

Yours, respectfully,
JOHN A. WADSWORTH.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1, 1832.

I certify that about fifteen years ago, my hair began to fall off, and in a few years became so thin that I found it a source of great inconvenience. On seeing Ward's Vegetable Hair Oil advertised in several New York papers, and highly recommended by two medical gentlemen, with whom I was acquainted, I was induced to make trial of it. When I commenced the use of it, I very much doubted its efficacy in my case, having been bald so many years. But I had not tried it long, before I found it to possess the properties which had been attributed to it. I have now as good and healthy a head of hair as I had twenty five years ago. I can cheerfully recommend it to others who have had the misfortune to lose their hair.

G. W. CUNNINGHAM.

BOSTON, Nov 3, 1832.

DR. WARD—Sir: A friend of mine had a bottle of your Hair Oil put into his hand, and using it a short time, the hair began to grow on his head, which was before bald, and he had tried many other remedies in vain.

Yours, respectfully,
C. E. ALLEN.

DAILY PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

MONDAY AFTERNOON, AUGUST 5, 1833.

☞Advertisements for this paper must be handed in before 9 o'clock, A. M., each day respectively, to insure their insertion that day.

THE HEALTH OF OUR CITY.—The Cholera has taken its departure from among us; no case having occurred since that of the boy on the 1st inst., which we mentioned on Friday last. We have truly great reason to be thankful for the slight affliction which we have experienced, when compared with other places. The entire number of deaths which have been attributed to Cholera, since the 11th of June, when that disease first appeared here, is fifty two, and in several of these cases, the actual existence of Cholera is denied.

CHOLERA IN CINCINNATI.—We incline to think that the account of the mortality, by this disease, in Cincinnati, on the 26th ultimo, which we published on the thirty first ultimo, was incorrect. We received the intelligence from a gentleman of undoubted veracity, but now believe that he was misinformed. The interments, in the different burying grounds in that city, on the 27th and 28th, were only nineteen.

We have received, through the post office, the communication signed "Viator," in relation to the making of a rail road, or goood turnpike road, from Hollidaysburgh, through Bedford, to Cumberland; and at his suggestion, we have examined the state map.—We are satisfied that this road would be a valuable improvement, but we cannot see that it would be a substitute for, or come in competition with, a direct road from this city to Cumberland; because the distance from Pittsburgh to Hollidaysburgh is about the same as from Pittsburgh to Fort Cumberland. Still the improvement would be a valuable one, at least to the country through which it passes, and adjacent to it.

THE WORKSHOP OF CALUMNIES AND FALSEHOODS.—When we thus designated Bache's Office, the school of morals and politics, in which our neighbor of the Advocate was educated, we did it deliberately, with a full conviction that it was the proper title for that establishment.—The editor of the Advocate, although he had previously expressed his belief that "we would never assert what we could not substantiate," ventures, in his paper of Saturday last, to stigmatize our statements on this point, as "random assertions."—Although we were surprized and disgusted at the barefaced impudence of applying such language to statements supported by the word of Washington, yet our surprize and disgust did not induce us to give up the matter. On the contrary, we became more diligent in our exertions to get further evidence upon the subject—our exertions have been crowned with success, and we have obtained evidence on the subject which will probably knock the horse laugh even out of the editor of the Advocate.

We have a variety of information, upon this matter, but shall at present content ourselves with one extract, which was penned and published under circumstances of peculiar and demoniac malignity, one to which the editor of the Advocate may have contributed his mite to promulgate, by setting up the types.

On the 4th of March, 1797, Washington's second term of office expired, and he was about to retire to Mount Vernon to enjoy that ease and happiness which he had so dearly earned by a life devoted to the most arduous, painful, and disinterested services. On that day, when every true hearted American would wish to strew his path with flowers—on that day, when even those who were opposed to him, but whose feelings were not imbued with a degree of malignity more than Satanic—would wish to see him pass, peaceably, from public to private life—the following vile, infamous, and blasphemous publication, appeared in "Bache's Aurora."

"'Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, for mine eyes have seen thy salvation,' was the pious ejaculation of a man who beheld a flood of happiness rushing in upon mankind. If ever there was a time which would justify the reiteration of that exclamation, the time is now arrived: For the man who is the source of all the misfortunes of our country, is this day reduced to a level with his fellow citizens, and is no longer possessed of power to multiply evils upon the United States. If ever there was a period for rejoicing, this is the moment—Every heart in unison with the freedom and happiness of the people ought to beat high with exultation that the name of Washington from this day ceases to give a currency to political iniquity, and to legalize corruption. A new era is now opening upon us, a new era which promises much to the people; for public measures must now stand upon their own merits, and nefarious projects can no more be supported by a name. When a retrospect is taken of the Washington administration for eight years past, it is a subject of the greatest astonishment that a single individual should have cancelled the principles of republicanism in an enlightened people, just emerged from the gulf of despotism, and should have carried his designs against the public liberty so far, as to have put in jeopardy its very existence: Such, however, are the facts, and with these staring us in the face, this day ought to be a jubilee in the United States."

We invite our readers to give it an attentive perusal—indeed, a second and third reading—we invite them to engrave it on their hearts, and to endeavor, through life, to recollect that such was the language applied to the pure, the unblemished, the immortal Washington, by Mr. Wilson's master and tutor, Bache.

We will not call the attention of our readers to the long tissue of falsehoods and forgeries, manufactured in the same establishment, where our neighbor imbibed his politics and morals—we will not call their attention to the charge of assassination, raked up from the ashes, after a lapse of forty three years—we will not call their attention to the letters forged either by the British, or Generals Conway and Gates, in 1777, to excite a belief that Washington was a traitor, and called to life again in 1797, for the purpose of wounding the feelings of the father of his country, and of gratifying the demoniac malignity of some of his enemies. We deem all this unnecessary. We have called the school in which our neighbor was educated a "workshop of calumnies and falsehoods." We wave all farther testimony; we put the cause to issue upon this single item of evidence, and submit the decision to the jury of the whole country. What say you, then, fellow citizens? "Was Washington the source of all the misfortunes of our country," or is this charge false and calumnious? Did Washington "multiply evils upon the United States," or is this charge false and calumnious? Did the name of Washington "give currency to political iniquity, and legalize corruption," or is this charge false and calumnious? Were "nefarious projects supported by the name of Washington," or is this charge false and calumnious? Do you believe that Washington had carried his designs so far against public liberty as to put in jeopardy its very existence," or is this charge false and calumnious?" Finally, we ask, was our epithet "workshop of calumnies and falsehoods," well applied, or was it a mere "random assertion?"

We repeat that, in deciding these questions, we wish our readers to throw out of view all the other publications which appeared in the Aurora, from its establishment until near the death of Washington.—We rest our cause upon this single item of evidence.

HAMBURGH, June 11.—The Journals contain lamentable accounts of extensive fires in various places, among which are the following:—On the 18th May, in the town of Zolkiew, near Limburg, in Gallicia, consisting of 700 houses, 250, with two Convents of the Dominican and Basilian Monks, were burnt to the ground.

On the 2d of June, a most dreadful conflagration destroyed a considerable part of the town of Reichenbach, in Voigtland. About 530 houses are supposed to be destroyed, and about 200, including those in the suburbs, remain standing.—The two churches, the post house, and other public buildings, were wholly consumed. The inhabitants amounted to between 5,000 and 6,000, of whom a large proportion have been obliged to take shelter in the barns outside the town and in the neighborhood. A servant girl, only 15 years of age, is arrested on suspicion of having wilfully caused this fire, by throwing live coals among some hay.

On the 26th of May, 306 houses were burnt down, at Izikszo, in Hungary.

On the 2d of June, twenty dwelling houses, and twenty four other buildings, were destroyed by fire, in the town of Osterode, in Hanover.

On the 29th of May, 100 houses were burnt in the little town of Hotzenplotz, in Austrian Silesia.

In the night of 28th May, 44 barns were burnt down, at Grabow, in Mecklenburg Schwerin.—London paper.

In the session of the French Chamber of Deputies, of the 11th June, General Lafayette asked some explanation in reference to vessels under the French flag employed in the slave trade. The Minister of Marine in reply said, that he was happy to say in the face of his own country and a neighboring one, that since the year 1830 there was no instance of the French flag covering the infamous traffic in negroes. That it was still carried on by the Spaniards and Portuguese, and that if they resorted to French colors to avoid the pursuit of English cruizers, it would not avail them any longer, as a new convention had been entered into with England, by which the ships of war of both countries were allowed, mutually, to visit and search the vessels of each other, and that this was absolutely necessary to prevent the traffic in negroes.—Nat. Gaz.

LODDON, 23d June.—Royal Institution.—Friday evening Mr. Brockedon delivered a lecture upon the properties and present uses of caoutchouc, or Indian rubber, the former uses of which were only for the rubbing out pencil marks. It was introduced into this country about a hundred years since, and is now used for making water proof clothes, and elastic materials of every description. It is particularly adapted to surgical bandages, and all materials where an equal pressure is required, which can be regulated by the wearer. The lecturer stated that he was much indebted for the substance of his lecture, and the materials furnished, to Messrs. Cornish & Co. of Holloway, who have a very extensive factory.—The cutting of the Indian rubber into fine threads is done by machinery, and so rapid are the effects of the machine, that two girls, by the aid of steam power, can cut into threads not much coarser than thick sowing thread, 240,000 yards per day, 80,000 yards of which weigh a pound. A curious experiment was also exhibited, the strengthening of rotten Indian rubber; a strand being dipped in a solution, immediately became perfectly strong. The lecturer stated, however, that his hearers might wish to have the knowledge of this secret. He was not acquainted with it, but the result was certainly most important to the possessors of it. The machinery, and secret mode of strengthening the Indian rubber, although in the hands of Cornish & Co., he stated was the invention of Mr. Sievier, the sculptor.—Whale fishing lines, elastic cables, and ropes, were exhibited, and their utilities ably spoken of by the lecturer.

From Athens.—We learn, says the Boston Transcript, in conversation with Mr. George Anastacius Polymerios, a young Greek, who arrived here in the Cora, from Smyrna, bringing letters, from Mr. Hill, the Episcopal Missionary, to the friends of Greece, that, on the first of April, a body of 400 Bavarian troops arrived before the city to take possession in the name of King Otho. They were well received by the inhabitants, who went out to meet them "in joy and gladness," shouting "long live the King of Greece." The bishop of Athens, accompanied by all the priests and deacons, paid their respects to the commander, and the bishop delivered an excellent address on the occasion.—Guards were placed at the gates, and the Bavarian Commander, M. Herbst, proceeded to organize the government, by appointing Manos, provisional governor, Cavacos, Collector of Customs, and Augelo Yeronbas, Chief of Police. Athens appeared to have acquired a new existence, and every one looked to see the end of anarchy and confusion. The people were awaiting the arrival of Haggi Bey from Negropont, who was expected to be present at the surrender of the citadel and the final evacuation of Attica. It was hoped and believed that King Otho might be induced to select Athens as his residence, and make it the capital of the country.—Poulson.

According to the French savans who have accompanied the expedition to Algiers, the tribes of Berbers who inhabit the mountains of the lesser Atlas, from Tunis to the empire of Morocco, are the ancient Numidians described by Sallust; and are precisely the same, with regard to manners, customs and civilization, as at the period of the war of Jugurtha, more than a century before the Christian era.

In the Court of King's Bench, of Dublin, on Thursday, the 26th day of June, it was expected that the trial of Mr. Barrett, the proprietor of The Pilot newspaper, for the publication of Mr. O'Connell's first letter to the people of Ireland, would come on; but when the special jury were called, only seven answered to their names. The Attorney General prayed for delay, and that the jurors should be called on large fines. The jurors were then called on fines of 20*l.*, and eight only answered. The Attorney General again prayed for delay and larger fines: both were granted, and the jurors were called on fines of 50*l.*, when two more appeared. The Attorney General again begged hard for delay; and the sheriff, with his assistants, went out of court to collect the jurors from their houses. Mr. Sheil, on behalf of the defendant, complained that the sheriff was gone to select a jury—he might call on those jurors he preferred. After another long delay, the Court refused to wait longer, and adjourned just as an eleventh juror made his appearance. The Attorney General prayed that the fine of 50*l.* might be imposed on all the jurors. The trial is now postponed to November term; by which time the Irish Jury Bill may be passed, and the complaint of the partial selection of jurors removed.—London paper.

Criminal Law of England.—We take the annexed paragraphs from a London paper, of the 22d June.

Andrew Macarthy, a child, eight years old, known as one of the most experienced among the forty thieves of the Whitechapel gang, was sentenced, at the Middlesex Sessions, on Monday, to two months' hard labor, and two whippings, for stealing a teacaddy, containing £2 13s., out of a house at Whitechapel.

On the same day, another boy, eleven years of age, was sentenced to be transported for fourteen years, for robbing a boy in the street, of some books belonging to his father. This lad cross examined the prosecutor with considerable ingenuity, and was said to be the most impudent rascal that the Magistrate has ever seen at the bar. The march of intellect, with a vengeance!

Privileges of the Sexes in England.—The ages of male and female in England are different for different purposes. A male at twelve years old may take the oath of allegiance; at fourteen is at years of discretion, and may consent or disagree to marriage—may choose his guardian, and, if his discretion be proved, may take a testament of his personal estate; at seventeen, may be an executor; and at twenty one is at his own disposal, and may alien his lands, goods, and chattels. A female at seven years may be betrothed, or given in marriage; at nine is entitled to dower; at twelve is at years of maturity, and, if proved to have sufficient discretion, may bequeath her personal estate; at fourteen years is of legal discretion, and may choose a guardian; at seventeen may be executrix; and at twenty one may dispose of herself and lands. So that full age, in male or female, is twenty one years, who, till that time, is styled an infant in law. Scotland agrees with England in this point.

Prevention of Forgery.—The Lord Mayor of London received a letter containing a plan for preventing the issue of forged checks and bills. His Lordship stated that though the communication came from a person who appeared to have got into disgrace by some means or other, the suggestion seemed to be well deserving of consideration. The following is a coppy:

"My Lord—Observing by the papers that one of those forgeries so injurious to society has been just completed, I beg leave to say that I have been speaking to Coster on the subject of his nefarious practices, and in the course of our conversation, I asked him what he thought of a plan which I, for a long time, have entertained as effectual against forgery, viz—Every person requiring a check, for instance, to have a private system of numbering, as follows:

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10,

and to have it in water mark in full on the paper; then when drawing on his banker say 'Pay BER: ie. 456*l.* Coster himself said, that if it was properly managed no ingenuity could foil it without a confederate in the confidence of the parties about to be robbed. My love of social order induces me to offer my simple aid for its benefit, although I fear from the suspicion of my pollution and other circumstances, I shall be ever hapless and cheerless in myself, in consequence of a wrong suspicion attaching to me."

Portable Theatre!—Mr. Faucit Savill has had constructed a portable theatre, capable of containing 800 persons. It is built of sheet iron, and may be taken asunder for conveyance from town to town, by van or wagon, without drawing a nail. Mr. Savill was to open it at Herne Bay on Friday with a respectable company.

The Deposits.—After a discussion of many months, during which the stock speculators opposed to the Bank of the United States have been laboring without intermission to induce the President to order the withdrawal of the Public Deposits from the charge of that institution, we are at length officially advised that the first step towards such a measure has been taken. The following paragraph is from the Globe of yesterday:

"We observe that some of our contemporaries of the press have stated, upon what authority we know not, that the government has determined not to withdraw the public deposits from the Bank of the United States.—We are well assured that no final resolution has been taken, the one way or the other. An agent has been appointed by the Secretary of the Treasury, under direction of the President, to ascertain from the State Banks in the principal cities, on what terms and in what manner they are willing to perform the services now rendered by the Bank of the United States, if the government should think proper to remove the deposits. But this measure is not to be understood to indicate a determination to take that step on report of the agent. The whole subject will then be open for consideration, as it is now."

We contend, that, whatever may be the desire of the President, or whatever course he might have taken upon the subject last autumn, he has now no right to remove the deposits. Before the last session of Congress, he might, perhaps, have found a color of an excuse, for such a measure; but even he dared not then assume the responsibility of a step, which would have hazarded the safety of the public money, and will hazard it now, if it be taken. He, therefore, presented the subject formally to the House of Representatives, the peculiar guardians of the public purse. Their decision is well known. By an overwhelming vote, the House decided against removing the deposits. The President, therefore, has now NO RIGHT—omnipotent as he feels himself to be, and as his parasites assure him he is—to adopt the measure under consideration. He took his appeal to Congress, and the Representatives of the People decided against him.

By the way, as it will be one part of the Agent's business to ascertain what securities the local banks can give, for the revenue that shall be confided to their care, a friend at our elbow suggests that the U. S. Bank Stock will be the safest! We concur in the opinion. N. B. There are a few millions of broken bank bills in the Treasury, which were taken by Mr. Crawford, when the local banks were used as places of deposit before: Perhaps the agent can make an arrangement with old Manhattan, to make those notes good on condition that she may add the present accruing deposits to her "pure-and-wholesome-water" capital. N. Y. Spectator.

Newspapers.—In the week, ending the 28th ultimo, there were received, at our Post Office, by the mails, fourteen thousand two hundred and sixty two newspapers, six thousand five hundred and eighty one of which were free.—N. Y. Post.

Oui and Yaw.—A Frenchman and German had one sausage between them for supper. The question was, how it should be divided. "Let us cut it in two," said the Frenchman. "Rather," replied the German, "let each of us take an end between our teeth, and at a given signal pull for our portion." "Agreed," exclaimed the other. The sausage was seized, and each fixed his teeth in the end that was nearest him. "Are you ready?" growled Mynheer. "Oui," replied Monsieur, through his clenched teeth—"etes vous?" "Yaw!" ejaculated the German, giving the signal, and dropping both jaw and sausage in the necessary open ejaculation of the word. Thus the sausage fell wholly to Monsieur's lot.

During the Protectorship of Cromwell, it happened that a secret expedition being about to sail, one of the fanatical preachers whom Cromwell was obliged to please sometimes, although he generally disapproved their conduct, came to the Protector and demanded an audience. When this was granted, he said, "The Lord wishes to know where the secret expedition is going?" "The Lord knows already," replied Cromwell, "but thou shalt know, for thou shalt go with it," and he sent him on board the fleet.—Literary Gaz.

In the Virginia Penitentiary, the whole number of convicts does not exceed 150, white and black; and of these, only 8 are females. To the honor of the State, be it said, there is not a single white woman amongst them.

Hoax.—The Washington Telegraph states that the article which is now going the rounds of the newspapers, relating the circumstances of a "horrid conspiracy in the East Indies," is "a hoax—although detailing a real transaction which took place some sixty years ago. The hoaxer has just altered the dates, and the thing takes."

Newspaper thieves.—Yesterday morning one of the carriers of the United States Gazette detected a man stealing a paper just deposited for a subscriber. Deferring all other business, the carrier seized the offender by the collar, and dragged him before a magistrate, where, on his oath the thief was committed to prison, to await trial at the Mayor's Court.—U. S. Gazette.

DEATH OF GOV. EDWARDS.—Letters from Belleville announce the Death of NINIAN EDWARDS, Esq., late Governor of Illinois. He expired on Saturday morning last, of Cholera, at his residence in that place.—St. Louis Repub. July 23.

The Indians.—We learn from the last Galenian, that Col. DODGE has accomplished the entire removal of the Winnebago Indians across the Wisconsin, in accordance with the treaty of last summer.

The same paper states, that during the payment of the Winnebago Indian Annuity, a few days previous, at Fort Winnebago fifty barrels of Whiskey were sold to them; that they generally became intoxicated; and in an affray one Indian woman and several children were killed. The Indian who committed the murders was immediately shot, by order of a chief, called the Little Priest. —St. Louis Repub.

☞The health of our city, as regards Cholera, is visibly improving. Unfortunately, however, we have what the editor of a paper in Philadelphia says they have in that city—green fruit, green corn, green cucumbers, and—green horns in abundance to eat them!—St. Louis Repub. July 23.

The Catholics of this city have recently been deprived of their House of Worship, a case in law having been decided against them, involving the title to the ground on which it is erected, and which was bequeathed to them by Mr. Gallego, for the express purpose of erecting a Catholic Church on it —What makes this loss the more felt by them, is that it is but a few years since, they succeeded by great exertions in building the pleasant church, which has become endeared to them, when they were turned out of it, and their number so few, and their circumstances generally so limited, as not to be able to purchase ground and erect another in its stead. They however have made a great effort to do so, having already subscribed more than enough to buy the lot they have in contemplation to build on. The Priest is now on a mission among the Northern Catholics, to raise additional funds; and it is confidently expected that others than Catholics will contribute to the object in Richmond.—Richmond Whig.

Our city, for some days past, has been graced, says the Baltimore Patriot, with the presence of AMOS KENDALL, Esq. who is on his tour of Bank reconnoisance, to make arrangements, if practicable, to pave the way for the removal of the Government Deposits from the U. S. Bank. He has left Baltimore for Philadelphia and the other Eastern cities, on the same errand. Mr. BLAIR, the Editor of the Globe, is on a Southern tour, and is reported to have the same object in view, while Major BARRY is performing a similar service in the West. President Jackson will be advised of their proceedings before he leaves the Rip Raps. It is intended, if possible, to make the transfer of the Deposits before the next meeting of Congress—the Agents, therefore, are required to be expeditious in their movements.—Poulson.

The Black Worm.—Complaints are made in upper Canada of a large black worm which is making fearful ravages with the grass and wheat of the new settlements. They appear to be as voracious as the locusts of Egypt. A single wheat field of 50 acres, had been entirely cut off by this new and destructive insect.—Poulson.

The trade between Baltimore and Charleston has, for some time past, assumed a character of permanency, and is now prosecuted with activity, and a regular enlargement of its operations, to the mutual benefit of both cities. An elegant new brig, the General Marion, commanded by Captain DELANO, was added, yesterday, to the line of packets, and will afford new inducements and facilities for increased trade and intercourse between the two ports. She is a first rate vessel, and reflects much credit on the enterprize and taste of her owners. Her model and rig must necessarily make her a fast sailer; and her well arranged, commodious, and elegantly furnished cabin affords assurance of every comfort to passengers.—Baltimore American, August 1.

Cure for the Dispepsia.—The venerable Dr. Twitchell, of Keene (N. H.) when called upon to prescribe to dispeptic patients, advised them, as the only certain remedy, to purchase a flock of sheep on the Green Mountains and drive them to Boston.

Extraordinary Exhibition—Hall of Industry.—This is the exhibition of three entire manufactories of cotton and woollen cloths, and cards, in full operation, comprizing twelve distinct machines. These are the Picker, on which the ball cotton is first placed, Carding Machine, Drawing Frame, Speeder, Throstle Frame, Spooling Machine, and the Loom, which weaves 35 yards of cotton cloth, half a yard wide, per day: also, in the Woollen Department, the Card, the Mule for Spinning, Napping and Shearing Machines, and the Card Sticker, which takes the wire from the reel, cuts and bends it, pricks the leather, and inserts the teeth, all at the same operation, and at the rate of 150 to 300 per minute. All this machinery is perfect in its parts and proportions, and the rapidity and regularity of its movements are very beautiful. The whole occupies only a space of 35 feet by 8. The entire system is worked by three dogs—staunch, massy, saucy looking English mastiffs—stationed on one end, on an engine, constructed by six cylinders, over which passes an inclined belt, on which the animals travel at about their usual walk. They work five or six hours a day, as steady as dray horses, and apparently almost as strong. Now and then one gets an advantage by resting his fore feet on the frame work, and pretending to kick a little with the other pair; but for the most part they are as honest workmen as any that have a dollar a day. It is worth nine pence to hear one of them growl when a spectator shows a disposition to interrupt their labor, even by looking them very hard in the face.—They are well behaved, but rather thin skinned.—Bost. Merc. Jour.

To the many improvements which have, for years been going on in Boston, one is now adding. It is a splendid line of buildings on the new "Exchange Wharf," and contains thirty two stores.—The whole south front and the back basement story, are of rough Quincy granite; and the window caps of the same material, "dressed." The contract expenditure is very little less than half a million of dollars; but this sum will be amply repaid by the commercial improvements of the adjoining wharves.—Poulson.

Mutton and no Mutton.—It is odd enough that a sheep when dead should turn into mutton, all but its head: for, while we ask for a leg or shoulder of mutton, we never ask for a mutton's head. But there is a fruit which changes its name still oftener: grapes are so called while fresh, raisins when dried, and plums when in a pudding.

Gimblets.—The yankees are in a fair way to destroy John Bull's gimlet trade within this country. The new twist gimlet is almost as much superior to the old English gimlet, as the screw auger is to the old pod auger. There is a gimblet factory at West Wharely, which employs 15 hands, about half of them females, and manufactures 25 gross per week. The steel is imported from England in round rods; the handles turned out in the vicinity. There is a gimlet factory in Buckland, one in the northern part of Franklin co., one in Keene, N. H., and one or more in Connecticut.—Northampton Gaz.

Salt.—There are many countries on the habitable globe where salt has never yet been found, and whose commercial facilities being extremely limited, the inhabitants can only occasionally indulge themselves with it as a luxury. This is particularly the case in the interior of Africa. "It would," says Mungo Park, "appear strange to an European to see a child suck a piece of rock salt as if it were sugar. This, however, I have frequently seen; although the poorer class of inhabitants are so very rarely indulged with this precious article, that to say that a man eats salt with his provisions is the same as saying he is a rich man. I have suffered great inconvenience myself from the scarcity of this article. The long use of vegetable food creates so painful a longing for salt, that no words can sufficiently describe it."—Park's Travels in Africa.

Fire Proof Cement.—The French cement, for the roofs of houses, to preserve the wood and protect it from fire, is made in the following manner:

Take as much lime as is usual in making a pot full of whitewash, and let it be mixed in a pail full of water; in this put two and a half pounds of brown sugar, and three pounds of fine salt; mix them well together, and the cement is completed. A little lamp black, yellow ochre, or other coloring commodity, may be introduced to change the color of the cement, to please the fancy of those who use it. It has been used with great success, and been recommended particularly as a protection against fire. Small sparks of fire, that frequently lodge on the roofs of houses, are prevented by this cement from burning the shingles. So cheap and valuable a precaution against the destructive element ought not to pass untried. Those who wish to be better satisfied of its utility can easily make the experiment, by using on a small temporary building—or it may be tried by shingles put together for the purpose, and then exposed to the fire.—Mechanics' Magazine.

Shoes and Sandals.—Shoes or slippers were worn in the East, but sandals which leave the toes bare, very seldom. The Egyptians made their shoes of papyrus or palm leaves. The Greeks and Romans, of both sexes, wore rich sandals of gold, silk, or other precious stuffs; the soles were of cork, which, for that reason, was called sandal wood, and they were, in general, at least one finger thick; sometimes they sowed five soles one over another. They were covered within and without with leather broader than the cork. Sandals were among the early, but not the later Anglo-Saxons.

A BEAUTIFUL SIMILE—BY BYANT.

Upon yon mountain's distant head,
With spotless snows for ever white,
Where all is still, and cold, and dead,—
Late shines the sun's departing light.

But far below those icy rocks,
The vales in summer bloom arryed—
Woods full of birds, and fields of flocks
Are dim with mist and dark with shade.

'Tis thus from warm and kindly hearts,
And eyes where generous meanings burn,
Earliest the light of life departs,
And lingers with the cold and stern.

Baltimore Prices Current, Tuesday, July 30, one o'clock, P. M.

FLOUR.—The market is extremely dull;—we hear of no operations in the article since our last. We can scarcely make a quotation; we learn, however, that the wagon price is now generally $6 for fresh ground Howard street, and dealers ask 6 12 1-2 from stores. Sales of Susquehanna, in bright bbls., fresh ground, at $6 12 1-2; dark bbls., according to quality, at 5 25 a 5 50.

GRAIN.—The arrivals of Wheat are abundant, and prices reduced. Several cargoes of good red have been sold, since Saturday, at $1 15 a $1 18 per bushel. We note a sale of 700 bushels fair red, this morning, at 1 18. Yesterday two cargoes of family white were disposed of at 1 30 a 1 32 per bushel. So far as we are able to ascertain, the market ranges, to day, as follows, viz: good to fair reds, 1 15 a 1 20; white, 1 20 a 1 25. Sales of White Corn at 61 a 63 cents; do. yellow, 64 a 65 cents. Rye, 65 cts.; and Oats, 28 a 30 cents.

WHISKEY.—We hear of no material change in this article. Moderate sales of hhds. have been made at 28 cents. Susquehanna, in bbls., 30 a 31 cents. The wagon price of bbls. is 26 1-2 a 27 cents, and store price of the same, 31 1-2 a 32 cts. —Patriot.

NEAR PITTSBURGH,

UNDER the superintendence of WILLIAM B. LACEY, D. D., with arrangements of increased efficiency, will commence it Autumnal Session, on the First Monday in September next.

In the Senior department, Dr. Lacey, with competent Assistants, will hear recitations in Mathematics, Natural Philosophy, Astronomy, Chemistry, Mental and Moral Philosophy, Logic, Elements of Criticism, in reference to Language and the Fine Arts, Elocution, Natural Theology, Evidences of Christianity, and Sacred History.

In the Junior Department, Mr. Bryan B. Killikelly, late Vice Principal of a Collegiate School, in the city of New York, will give instructions in Orthography, Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, Grammar, Geography, Botany, Geology, Ancient and Modern History, Rhetoric, and the Latin and Greek languages.

In the Ornamental department, Mrs. Lacey, assisted by accomplished instructors, will give lessons in the French, and Italian languages, Vocal and Instrumental Music, Drawing, and Painting, in the style of several of the European, and Oriental Schools, Calisthenics, and the forms and elegancies of polished life.

The price for Board, General Superintendance, Fuel, Candlelight, Pew Rent, access to an extensive Library, instructions in Calesthenics, Orthography, Reading, Writing, Rudiments of Geography, and Arithmetic, and all the varieties of Needle Work, will be $30 per term. To this charge will be added, for instruction in any or in all of the higher branches taught in the Junior department, (except the Latin and Greek languages) $6; or instead thereof, in any or in all the branches of the Senior department, $8; French and Italian, each $8; Music, including the use of the instruments for practice, $13; Drawing, and Painting, $6; Bronzing and Painting, in the Oriental styles, $20. Or, if Parents prefer a more definite arrangement, Dr. Lacey will Board, and Instruct, in any, or in all the branches taught in the Institute, for $200, per annum, per scholar, they paying the amount in advance.

The Principal intends to establish, in the vicinity, and under his own general Superintendance, a school for small boys, where, with his own sons, they will be fitted for entrance into any college in the United States. The charge for board and tuition, in any or in all the branches of a finished English education will be $120 per annum, and for other branches proportionally moderate.

No scholar will be received for a less time than one term; and all bills must be paid one quarter in advance.

Each pupil is required to bring a Bible, Bed, and Bedding, Towels; Table spoon, Tea spoon, Knife and Fork.

Pupils will be permitted to attend any place of public worship their Parents may designate.

The Institute having been in operation four terms, and sustained two public examinations, Dr. Lacey submits, with particular satisfaction, the following spontaneous testimonial of its character, and results from Parents and friends of pupils in the Institute.

Pittsburgh, August 3, 1833.

TO THE REV. W. B. LACEY, D. D.—

Dear Sir—We have been so amply gratified by the late examination of your Female Collegiate Institute, that we feel it equally a pleasure and a duty to express our satisfaction, and to wish you such success in your enterprise as may remunerate you for your large expenditure, and, in some measure, compensate you for the unwearied application of your talents and learning to the cause of Education.

The examination was conducted with such minute and critical severity as served to test, to the utmost, the understanding of the pupils, and the extent of their acquisitions in their varied and interesting studies.

When it is taken into consideration that the number of pupils did not exceed fifty, and that three days were spent, almost without relaxation, in ascertaining their mental and moral improvement, the results must be considered as peculiarly gratifying to their parents and friends, and as reflecting the highest credit upon the Principal of the Institute and those to whom their instruction has been committed.

The examination embraced, in its range, the elementary, as well as the higher branches of elocution, Grammar, Geography, Arithmetic, Rhetoric, the elements of Moral Philosophy, Chemistry, Botany, Astronomy, Algebra, French, Music, and Calesthenic exercises.

In the whole course, whether in those matters that belong to the useful and essential branches, or those that may be termed the accomplishments and refinements of Education, care, attention, and talent, on the part of the instructors, and devotion and industry on the part of the pupils, were obvious. Peculiar interest was excited by the classes that had devoted their attention to Elocution and Rhetoric, by the highest class in French, whose translations from D'Agguessau, Racine, & L'Henriade, were subjects of just commendation; and by the young Ladies who had devoted their attention to Moral Philosophy, whose application of its principles to the Science of Government, and thorough knowledge of the Constitution of the United States, created feelings of mingled surprize and admiration in the bosoms of us all.

The class in Algebra, under the particular charge of Professor Aikin, evinced a knowledge of that most difficult branch of Mathematics, and also of Chemistry and Botany, entitling him and them to high approbation.

The Musical exhibition was extremely satisfactory, as evincing the capability of Mr. Rupp, the Musical Professor, in that delightful accomplishment, and the rapid improvement of his pupils.

Without entering further into detail, sir, we express our entire satisfaction with the result of your system, and cannot forbear expressing a wish that the citizens of our wealthy, manufacturing metropolis, and our fellow citizens throughout the western states, who wish to afford to their daughters the benefits of a refined, accomplished, and useful education, at about one third of the expense that such an education would cost them in eastern cities, will confer their patronage upon your Institution. In addition to all the advantages as regards the improvement of mind and manners which an eastern Institution can afford, the location of your Institution, surrounded by scenes of picturesque beauty, with its groves, orchards, and gardens, its springs of pure water, and in the midst of a country which may be emphatically denominated the residence of health, would, of itself, operate as a strong inducement to parents who are disposed to send their children abroad for education to intrust them to your care.

I have been acquainted with the Institute from its commencement. Its pupils have been unusually healthy; indeed, the situation is one of the most salubrious which I know. At the time of the late examination, in a family of upwards of seventy persons, including the pupils, there was not one who was the subject of medical treatment.

PROSPECT HILL
PITTSBURGH, Pa.

ON the 1st of July, Mr. DANIEL STONE intends opening, near the City of Pittsburgh, an Institution for the instruction of boys. Its plan is to combine, as far as possible, the peculiar advantages of a domestic and public education.—The pupils, with the principal and assistants, will constitute one family, and be at all times under careful supervision. The Discipline will be mild, but strict, such as a father, solicitous for the welfare of his children, would exercise over them. It is believed that an appeal to reason, and the sense of honor and duty, will generally secure obedience. Coercive measures will, therefore, be adopted only in extreme cases.

The Course of Study will embrace the English, Latin, Greek, and French Languages; Arithmetic, Algebra, and Geometry; Geography and History—Ancient and Modern; Rhetoric, Composition, and Elocution; Natural Philosophy and Chemistry; Penmanship, Orthography, and Reading. Frequent examinations will be held, open to the friends and relations of the youths.

The Mode of Instruction will be thorough and critical, and no subject will be relinquished until fully understood. That the scholar's mind may become vigorous, active, and self-confident—prepared for the stern conflicts of life, and a fearless discharge of its duties, he will be encouraged to reason and decide for himself.

Each student will be required to attend such church as his parent or guardian shall designate.

To preserve health and elasticity of spirits, to check indolence, and promote industry among the students, they will be daily exercised in athletic sports.

Pupils will be admitted between the ages of Six and Sixteen. None can be received for less than one term.

The uniform Dress will consist of a cap, blue roundabout, with metal buttons, and blue pantaloons. Every article of clothing should be marked with the owner's name in full.

The Terms are two hundred dollars a year, payable quarterly in advance. This includes Tuition, Board, Lodging, Washing, Mending, Light, and Fuel.

The Vacations, after the present year, will be three—the 1st, of two weeks, from the 3d Wednesday in April; the 2d, of four weeks, from the 2d Wednesday in August; and one week at Christmas.

The Matron's department will be under the care of Mrs. Reynolds, of this city.

New Theatre, Pittsburgh.

THE Public is respectfully informed, that this ELEGANT NEW THEATRE, at present buildiug, in Fifth Street, will be opened for the Season, under the management of the subscriber, with a Dramatic Company not surpassed by any in the Union, on Monday, the Second of September, 1833.

The building has been substantially erected, by those well known Mechanics, Messrs. Roseburg, Reynolds, Scott, & McCulloch, after a plan drawn by John Haviland, Esq., of Philadelphia, whose justly acquired fame as an Architect will be increased by the style and Beauty of the Present Edifice.

A first rate London Artist has been employed, for the last three months, in preparing the Dresses especially for this Theatre, which, in point of
ELEGANCE AND SPLENDOR,
Will equal, if not surpass those belonging to the Metropolitan Theatres of New York, or Philadelphia.

THE SCENERY
Has been designed and executed by Mr. J. R. Smith, a young Artist of great talent, and whose productions may challenge comparison with those of the most distinguished Scene Painters of the day.

THE MACHINERY
Has been entrusted to the care of Mr. Stafford, late of the Philadelphia Theatres, and the direction of the
MECHANICAL DEPARTMENT

In addition to the exertions of the Regular Company, most of whom are advantageously known in the Eastern Theatres, the Manager has great pride and pleasure in informing the inhabitants of Pittsburgh and its vicinity, that he has engaged, at great expense, the celebrated American Tragedian
MR. E. FORREST,
Who will have the honor of appearing before them at an early period, of which due notice will be given. Negotiations have already been entered into with the most distinguished Performers of the American Stage, who will appear in rapid succession—among others,
MR. & MRS. HILSON,
MISS CLARA FISHER,
MRS. KNIGHT,
MR. J. R. SCOTT,
Also, Mr. PARSLOE, of the Theatre, Covent Garden, London, &c. &c. &c.

In making these arrangements, the subscriber has used every exertion in his power to render THE THEATRE a place of rational amusement---
"To raise the genius and to mend the heart;
Shew Virtue her own features;
Vice her own image;
The age and body of the time, his form and pressure."

And he throws himself confidently on the liberality of the citizens of Pittsburgh for support.

MILL AND CROSS-CUT SAWS.

THE Subscriber has the satisfaction to say to the public, and his friends, that he has connected with his other business, the manufactury of Mill and Cross Cut Saws; and can furnish supplies to merchants and others: he believes them to be equal to any ever used in the western country—the experience of the workmen employed, with the known good qualities of the steel, justifies him in warranting the article to any who may be disposed to patronize western industry.

DOCTOR ROBERT'S

☞WELCH MEDICAMENTUM.☜

FOR the cure of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints. Jaundice, Cholic, Fever and Ague, Dysentery, Headach, Loss of Appetite, Flatulence, Hypochondria, Hysterics, Dropsical Complaints, and Heartburn, It also prevents all Bilious disorders, and removes habitual Costiveness, Asthma, Strangury, Gravel, Rheumatism, Gout, and Impurities of the Blood.

A person who uses this Medicamentum will not require the use of the lancet, or any means of the healing art. It restores and revives the animal spirits, invigorates the system, removes nervous tremors, obtunds rheumatic and anthritic pains, and prevents their return. It cleanses the stomach of all morbid humors, which cause indigestion, acidities, headach, and lowness of spirits; cures all bilious disorders, and all cholics of the stomach and bowels, almost immediately; inspires cheerfulness; gives comfort to the dropsical; takes away palpitation of the heart; gives circulation to the blood; restores bloom to the sallow or sickly cheek, and plumpness to the meagre habit; purges without pain, and banishes all cause of fever of every kind. It acts on the stomach, that great reservoir of the human system, a diseased state of which causes all diseases. No alteration in the usual habits of life is required, but the abstaining from distilled ardent spirits.

CERTIFICATE,

From Rev. Derick Lansing, D. D., Pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church in Utica.

Utica, Jan. 6, 1830.

To Dr. Hilchcock.—Dear Sir: I have always been one of the number of those who have placed little confidence in nostrums or specifics, and for this reason, although I saw your advertisement of the Welch Medicamentum, I could not bring my mind to consent to use it. My sufferings, from indigestion, during the past summer, were so severe, as materially to affect my comfort, and my capacity for usefulness. I have reason to thank you, sir, that, on hearing of the state of my health, you kindly sent me your Medicamentum. I have taken it faithfully, and with entire success. I have not been visited with one of those turns of distress, which before were weekly periodical, since I began to take your valuable medicine. Could I receive the same relief which I have hitherto experienced, on condition of taking it for life, I should cheerfully comply with such condition. Your's, very truly, D. C. LANSING.

ANTI-DYSPEPTIC ELIXER.

ONE of the most agreeable and efficacious Medicines ever discovered for the permanent cure of those chronic states of derangement of the stomach, constituting that miserable disease called Dyspepsia.

The basis of this Elixer is vegetables, and perfectly innocent in its operation; it destroys that sour state of the stomach, the instant it is taken, and stops the morbid secretion, by giving strength to the muscular fibre of that important organ, by which means the peristaltic motion of the intestines is increased, and the costiveness obviated; a new action is given to the system, which puts an end to a train of distressing nervous sensations.

Another form of the disease in which the Elixer is admirably calculated to relieve, is the decline of fever, where the stomach will not bear the ordinary strengthening medicines indicated in such cases, it has the surprising effect of giving vigor, and restoring the natural secretions of the body, without increasing the febrile state. Not the least danger is to be apprehended from exposure to cold, while under the use of this medicine, nor will it interrupt necessary employment of the patient a single hour.

☞A number of cases of cures performed by the Anti-Dyspeptic Elixer in the vicinity of Pittsburgh can be given.

GEO. W. CARPENTER'S
COMPOUND SYRUP OF LIVERWORT,

A SAFE and Valuable Medicine for Coughs, Spitting of Blood, Consumption, and Liver Complaints.

Most of the medicines made use of for the above diseases are of a stimulating nature, composed generally of Resins and Balsams, in alcoholic solutions, which, although sometimes givingt emporary relief, in almost every instance where they are freely used, aggravate the disease, and reduce the strength of the patient.

This article possesses superior advantages over these preparations, its action being of a tonic, invigorating and strengthening nature, thus overcoming the disease by promoting expectoration, and gradully increasing the strength of the patient, and thus, without being attended with any unpleasant effects: it also agrees with the stomach, in all cases, and is a pleasant medicine to take.

PATENT PLANING MACHINE.—The right to use this valuable machine, invented and patented by William Woodworth, and known as Woodworth's Patent Planing Machine, may be obtained on application to the subscriber for the counties of Allegheny, Butler, Beaver, Washington, Green, Fayette, Somerset, Cambria, Indiana, Jefferson, Clearfield, M'Kean, Warren, Venango, Mercer, Crawford, and Erie, in the State of Pennsylvania. That part of Maryland lying west of the Blue Ridge; all that part of Virginia lying west of the Blue Ridge, except the county of Ohio. The whole of the state of Ohio except the counties of Hamilton, Butler, and Montgomery. The whole of the state of Kentucky, except the counties of Jefferson, Boone, Oldham, Gallatin, and Campbell. The whole of Indiana, except the counties of Floyd, Clark, Jefferson, Dearborn, and Switzerland. The whole of the state of Illinois, and the territory of Michigan. Rights to use the machine in that part of the United States, named above, will be sold by the single county or in larger districts. As it is presumed that no one will purchase without seeing the machine at work, a description of it is deemed unnecessary. Should any person, however, wish to purchase, and find it inconvenient to visit the places where it is in operation, a machine will be furnished, warranted to plane, tongue and groove, and bring to an exact width and thickness, a white pine board of 12 feet long, and of any width from 1 to 14 inches, in one minute and ten seconds, or an oak board of the same dimensions in 2 minutes and 10 seconds. Machines may be seen at work in the cities of New Orleans, Washington, Philadelphia, New York, Boston, and others at the south and east, at Wheeling, Virginia, and at the saw mill of Messrs. Irwin & Herron, in this city.

Persons desiring to purchase will have the certificates of scientific and practical men who have seen it at work, in the different places in which it has been put up, forwarded to them. They give their opinion as to the great value of the invention state the time they have seen boards dressed by this machine, and describe the quality of the work as compared with that performed by hand labor.

VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE.

THE Subscriber offers for sale the farm on which he lives, in Washington county, on Pigeon creek, one mile south of Williamsport, on the Monongahela river, to which there is a perfectly level road. This farm contains near 400 acres, the greater part of which is first rate land. There is on the premises a Brick Dwelling House, a Merchant mill, in good repair, a new saw mill, a stone still house, 35 by 40 feet; a salt works is also in operation, and worked to advantage; about 150 acres of land cleared and under good fence. There is on the premises three small tenements for the accommodation of families. This tract is well timbered, and abounds with stone coal and springs of water, both of the best quality.

To a person wishing to embark in a manufacturing business, and possessing capital, this would be a very desirable situation, having the advantage of both water power from Pigeon creek, and banks of the very best coal near to the works, and easy of access, and its vicinity to so navigable a river, where articles of any kind are so cheaply transported to Pittsburgh.

For further particulars, apply to James P. Stuart, Merchant, Wood street, Pittsburgh, or to the subscriber on the premises.

TRAVELLERS.

THE LINE OF STAGES between Chambersburgh and Baltimore, on the Somerset and Mountpleasant route, has been doubled, and now runs DAILY, (Mondays excepted,) leaving Chambersburgh at day-light in the morning, and arriving in Baltimore, early the same evening.

Passengers reach Philadelphia, in this way, the second afternoon, from Chambersburgh, without the loss of any rest; taking the splendid STEAM BOAT LINES, which set out at 6 o'clock in the morning, [via CHESAPEAKE AND DELAWARE CANAL, a work well worth the trip to see.]

REESIDE, Owner.

In all cases where the passengers desire to reach Baltimore in time for the 5 o'clock steam-boat to Philadelphia, they can do so by leaving Chambersburgh at one o'clock in the morning, or immediately after the arrival of the Western Mail Stage. In this way, they arrive in Philadelphia, by eight o'clock the second morning, from Chambersburgh.

☞ When a load offers, the stage will run on Mondays. April 23, 1830.—tf.

TYPE FOUNDRY.

HAVING purchased of Mr. Richard Ronaldson, his long established and very extensive Type Foundry, the subscribers have formed a co-partnership for the purpose of continuing said business, and for the convenience of their friends and patrons, have removed their establishment to a more central part of the city. As it is their intention to keep on hand a good assortment of the best type, and to make such additions and improvements as the taste of the trade and the wants of the country require, they flatter themselves that this establishment will merit a large share of patronage. They have now several founts on hand, which can be furnished at a few hours' notice, and are prepared to make founts of all weights and sizes, from Pearl to 22 lines Pica, including a variety of Ornamental Letter. Their assortment of Cuts, Dashes, Brass Rule, and other Ornaments, will be found to be very extensive, of which specimens will be forwarded to Printers as soon as they can be prepared.

Printing Presses of every description, Printing Ink of the most approved qualities, Composing Sticks, Brass and Common Galleys, Chases, Imposing Stones, Cases, Paper and Press Boards, Standing Presses, Furniture, together with a complete assortment of all articles used in a Printing Office, will be kept constantly on hand.

Small founts, suitable for Book Binders, in great variety, may be had when called for.

Orders from all parts in the Union will be promptly and most carefully attended to, and particularly in supplying sorts for all founts furnished by their predecessors, Binny & Ronaldson, and Richard Ronaldson.
